SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant will participate in a substance abuse treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. The court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse treatment provider, as approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

The defendant shall participate in a mental health program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered not covered by third-party payment, if the defendant has the ability to pay. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports to the mental health care provider.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under his control to search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of conditions of release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other occupants that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall obey the immigration laws and comply with the directives of immigration authorities.

The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody.

It is recommended that the defendant be supervised by the district of residence.
